From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King and, at the same time, we give thanks to our good Lord for the all graces of the Jubilee Year of Mercy. This Sunday evening marks the closing of the Jubilee Year of Mercy and the special graces and indulgences associated with it. This past year has offered all the faithful a multitude of riches from the merciful Heart of our Lord Jesus! It is truly right and just that we now thank and praise Him for His exceeding goodness toward us! May we trust Him at all times to lead us on the path of holiness and onward toward Heaven!

Regarding today's Solemnity of Christ the King, in Sacred Scripture we can read and find the doctrinal basis for our celebration of our Lord's kingly authority: "Rather, He emptied Himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in Heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2:7-11)

In the encyclical letter, Quas Primas (1925), Pope Pius XI wrote: "Christ Himself speaks of His Own kingly authority: in His last discourse, speaking of the rewards and punishments that will be the eternal lot of the just and the damned; in His reply to the Roman magistrate, who asked Him publicly whether He were a king or not; after His resurrection, when giving to His Apostles the mission of teaching and Baptizing all nations, He took the opportunity to call Himself king, confirming the title publicly, and solemnly proclaimed that all power was given Him in Heaven and on earth. These words can only be taken to indicate the greatness of His power, the infinite extent of His kingdom. What wonder, then, that He Whom St. John calls the "prince of the kings of the earth" appears in the Apostle's vision of the future as He Who "hath on His garment and on His thigh written 'King of kings and Lord of lords!'" It is Christ Whom the Father "hath appointed heir of all things"; "for He must reign until at the end of the world He hath put all his enemies under the feet of God and the Father."

It was surely right, then, in view of the common teaching of the sacred books, that the Catholic Church, which is the kingdom of Christ on earth, destined to be spread among all men and all nations, should with every token of veneration salute her Author and Founder in her annual liturgy as King and Lord, and as King of Kings. And, in fact, she used these titles, giving expression with wonderful variety of language to one and the same concept, both in ancient psalmody and in the Sacramentaries."

The early Church theologian, Origen (cir. 185-254), wrote about our Lord's kingly power in a notebook on prayer. This reading is part of the Liturgy of the Hours of Church.

"The kingdom of God, in the words of our Lord and Savior, does *not come for all to see; nor shall they say: Behold, here it is, or behold, there it is; but the kingdom of God is within us, for the word of God is very near, in our mouth and in our heart. Thus it is clear that he who prays for the coming of God's kingdom prays rightly to have it within himself, that there it might grow and bear fruit and become perfect. For God reigns in each of his holy ones. Anyone who is holy obeys the spiritual laws of God, who dwells in him as in a well-ordered city. The Father is present in the perfect soul, and with him Christ reigns, according to the words: *We shall come to him and make our home with him.

Thus the kingdom of God within us, as we continue to make progress, will reach its highest point when the Apostle's words are fulfilled, and Christ, having subjected all his enemies to himself, will hand over his kingdom to God the Father, that God may be all in all. Therefore, let us pray unceasingly (continue on pg. 4)

Come to Holy Mass on Thanksgiving!

Holy Mass will be offered on Thanksgiving at the Church of St. Paul at 9:00am, and at the Church of the Holy Trinity in Goodhue at 8:00am. Show Our Lord how grateful you are for His Gift of the Holy Eucharist!

Women's Holy Hour: The next women's Holy Hour will be the day after Thanksgiving, Friday November 25th, 7:00 p.m. at the Church of St. Michael. Come, pray to our Lord and afterward we will have fall desserts and a recipe swap. If you're able, please bring your favorite fall dessert to share AND 20 copies of your recipe with your name on it.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY TEA "Christmas Around the World"

Saturday, December 3, 2016 9:30am-12:30pm
 You are all invited to begin celebrating the Christmas season by joining us at the Church of St. Michael for our annual Christmas Holiday Tea. Relax with family and friends by enjoying the Tea Table with a variety of specialty food items, all donated by the women of the parish. This is provided at no charge. We will have a Bakery Table with holiday goodies and a Craft Table will offer handmade items perfect for gifts, stocking stuffers and Christmas décor. There is also a Raffle Table which has many prizes donated by local residents and our CCW Circles.

Congratulations to the following parents who had their child baptized in the recent months:

Dustin & Vanessa Zauner - their child, Amelia Ann
Michael & Whitney Downie - their child, Charlie Ricky
Dana Patrick & Emily Schroeder - their child, Isabelle Evelyn Keith & Lindsay Johnson - their child, Brayden James
Jacob & Charlotte Berner - their child, Annabelle Jayne
Andrew & Anna Bell - their child, William Donald

Church of St. Michael Cemetery Collection: Thank you to all members of our parish who have donated to our cemetery envelope collection. These funds go directly to the maintenance of St. Michael's Cemetery, where many of our parishioners are buried. The donations are vital to the operation of our cemetery. Your past and future donations are greatly appreciated. A cemetery second collection will be this weekend, November 19-20. Envelopes are in your contribution packet.

Saint of the Week: November 22nd - St. Cecilia—In the city of Rome he during the 2nd century, there was a virgin named Cecilia, who came from an extremely rich family and was given in marriage to a youth named Valerian. She told her husband she had taken a vow of virginity and had an angel protecting her. Valerian asked to see the angel as proof, and Cecilia told him he would have eyes to see once he was baptized.

Following his baptism, Valerian returned to his wife and found an angel at her side. His brother, Tibertius, was also baptized and together the brothers dedicated their lives to burying the saints who were murdered each day by the Romans. Both brothers were eventually arrested and brought before the prefect where they were executed after they refused to offer a sacrifice to the gods. Cecilia was later arrested for being a Christian and condemned to death. The executioner struck her three times but was unable to decapitate her so he left her bleeding and she lived for three days. Crowds came to her and collected her blood while she preached to them or prayed. On the third day she died and was buried by Pope Urban and his deacons.

St. Cecilia is regarded as the patroness of music, because she heard heavenly music in her heart when she was married, and is represented in art with an organ or organ-pipes in her hand.
In the home: Sing hymns and pray to St. Cecilia for bravery and love of God she showed during her short life.

The requests are for grocery, gas, and department store gift cards, personal care products and items such as paper, towels laundry soap. Since we are not purchasing specific gifts for individuals, you do not need to record the ornament that you take. The gifts will be distributed to families in the Zumbrota- Mazeppa school district. Please return items by December 11th. Thank you for your generosity as you share your blessings with those less fortunate. If you have questions please contact Maggie Eggerichs.

Pro Life Quotes

"The new evangelization calls for followers of Christ who are unconditionally prolife: who will acclaim, celebrate and serve the Gospel of life in every situation. A sign of hope is the increasing recognition that the dignity of human life must never be taken away, even in the case of someone who has done great evil." ~Pope John Paul II~

Zumbrota Area Food Shelf: The items requested for the month of November is personal care products, like shampoo, toothpaste, toilet paper.

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from pg. 1) with that disposition of soul which the Word may make divine, saying to our Father who is in heaven: Hallowed be your name; your kingdom come.

Note this too about the kingdom of God. It is not a sharing of justice with iniquity, nor a society of light with darkness, nor a meeting of Christ with Belial. The kingdom of God cannot exist alongside the reign of sin. Therefore, if we wish God to reign in us, in no way should sin reign in our mortal body; rather we should mortify our members which are upon the earth and bear fruit in the Spirit. There should be in us a kind of spiritual paradise where God may walk and be our sole ruler with his Christ. In us the Lord will sit at the right hand of that spiritual power which we wish to receive. And he will sit there until all his enemies who are within us become his footstool, and every principality, power and virtue in us is cast out.

All this can happen in each one of us, and the last enemy, death, can be destroyed; then Christ will say in us: O death, where is your sting? O hell, where is your victory? And so what is corruptible in us must be clothed with holiness and incorruptibility; and what is mortal must be clothed, now that death has been conquered, in the Father's immortality. Then God will reign in us, and we shall enjoy even now the blessings of rebirth and resurrection."

Through the intercession of Mary, the Queen of Heaven, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may our love and trust in Christ our King grow unto a complete, loving surrender to His reign in our hearts!

In Christ through Mary, Fr. Kasel

St Pio Knights of Columbus will meet at 8:00am on Saturday, December 10th at Church of St. Michael. We will have breakfast.

YFC (Youth For Christ) will be meeting on Sunday, December 4th at 6:30pm at Church of St. Paul.

ECUMENICAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Church of St Michael will host the Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service this Sunday, November 20 at 4pm. Coffee & pie will be served after the service.

All are invited!

A Prayer of Gratitude for the Year of Mercy

The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in mercy. The LORD is good to all, compassionate toward all your works. All your works give you thanks, LORD and your faithful bless you. Ps 145:8-10

Celebrate the Closing of the Jubilee Year of Mercy

The Year of Mercy this Sunday, November 20. Join with others from around the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis at the Closing Mass, 6:15 p.m. at the Basilica of Saint Mary, Minneapolis. Archbishop Hebda will close the Holy Door and celebrate Mass. If you are unable to attend the Closing Mass, ask if your parish is having a celebration for the end of the Year of Mercy.
