From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This coming Wednesday, February 22, we celebrate the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter. This Feast is one that 'anchors' us in our Catholic identity. This is an ancient Feast in our Church – known to have been celebrated with much solemnity as early as the 5th century. I offer for your meditation the second reading for the Liturgy of the Hours, office of readings. It is a sermon given by Pope St. Leo the Great (birth: circa 400 – death: November 10, 461)

From a sermon by St. Leo the Great, Pope
(Sermo 4 de natali ipsius, 2-3: PL 54, 149-151)

The Church of Christ rises on the firm foundation of Peter's faith

"Out of the whole world one man, Peter, is chosen to preside at the calling of all nations, and to be set over all the apostles and all the fathers of the Church. Though there are in God's people many shepherds, Peter is thus appointed to rule in his own person those whom Christ also rules as the original ruler. Beloved, how great and wonderful is this sharing of his power that God in His goodness has given to this man. Whatever Christ has willed to be shared in common by Peter and the other leaders of the Church, it is only through Peter that He has given to others what He has not refused to bestow on them.

The Lord now asks the apostles as a whole what men think of Him. As long as they are recounting the uncertainty born of human ignorance, their reply is always the same.

But when He presses the disciples to say what they think themselves, the first to confess his Faith in the Lord is the one who is first in rank among the apostles.

Peter says: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus replies: Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona, for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but My Father who is in Heaven. You are blessed, He means, because My Father has taught you. You have not been deceived by earthly opinion, but have been enlightened by inspiration from Heaven. It was not flesh and blood that pointed Me out to you, but the One whose only-begotten Son I am.

He continues: And I say to you. In other words, as my Father has revealed to you My Godhead, so I in My turn make known to you your pre-eminence. You are Peter: though I am the inviolable rock, the cornerstone that makes both one, the foundation apart from which no one can lay any other, yet you also are a rock, for you are given solidity by my strength, so that which is My very own because of My power is common between us through your participation.

And upon this rock I will build My Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. On this strong foundation, He says, I will build an everlasting temple. The great height of My Church, which is to penetrate the heavens, shall rise on the firm foundation of this Faith. The gates of hell shall not silence this confession of Faith; the chains of death shall not bind it. Its words are the words of life. As they lift up to Heaven those who profess them, so they send down to hell those who contradict them.

Welcome to the Churches of

St. Paul & St. Michael

We are happy that you are here! If you are new to our parishes, please call or stop at the Parish Office. We would love to meet you and answer any questions that you might have!

Blessed Peter is therefore told: To you I will give the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you bind on earth is also bound in Heaven. Whatever you lose on earth shall be loosed also in Heaven.

The authority vested in this power passed also to the other apostles, and the institution established by this decree has been continued in all the leaders of the Church. But it is not without good reason that what is bestowed on all is entrusted to one. For Peter received it separately in trust because he is the prototype set before all the rulers of the Church."

Through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph and our patrons, St. Michael, St. Paul and St. Peter, may the blessing of God our Father in Heaven, Jesus Christ, our Head and Savior, God the Holy Spirit, our life and peace, bless our Holy Father, Pope Francis, the whole Church and all our parishes!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Kasel

Saint of the Week: February 23rd - St. Polycarp

Imagine being able to sit at the feet of the apostles and hear their stories of life with Jesus from their own lips. Imagine walking with those who had walked with Jesus, seen him, and touched him. That was what Polycarp was able to do as a disciple of Saint John the Evangelist. After the apostles were gone, heresies sprang up pretending to be true teaching, persecution was strong, and controversies arose over how to celebrate liturgy that Jesus never laid down rules for.

Polycarp, as a holy man and bishop of Smyrna, found there was only one answer -- to be true to the life of Jesus and imitate that life. Polycarp faced persecution the way Christ did. One day, during the many martyrdoms held during this time, the crowd called for Polycarp to be fed to the lions. He escaped to a farm and spent his time in prayer for people he knew and for the Church. During his prayer he saw a vision of his pillow turned to fire and announced to his friends that the dream meant he would be burned alive.

Polycarp was captured and because of his lack of fear, the proconsul told him he would be burned alive. The fire was lit as Polycarp said Amen and then the eyewitnesses who reported said they saw a miracle. The fire burst up in an arch around Polycarp, the flames surrounding him like sails, and instead of being burned he seemed to glow like bread baking, or gold being melted in a furnace. When the captors saw he wasn't being burned, they stabbed him. The blood that flowed put the fire out. The date was about February 23, 156. Prayer: Saint Polycarp, sometimes Christ seems so far away from us. Centuries have passed since he and he apostles walk the earth. Help us to see that he is close to us always and that we can keep him near by imitating his life as you did. Amen

Pro Life Quote

As far as abortion is concerned, it's part of the fifth, not the sixth, commandment: "Thou shalt not kill!" We have to presume this is obvious and always stress that the human person begins in the mother's womb and remains a human person until his or her last breath. The human person must always be respected as a human person. -Pope Benedict XV <http://www.stdenischurch.org/oLifeQuotes.pdf>
