From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!
 Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,
 This weekend we celebrate Laetare Sunday. Laetare is the Latin word for 'rejoice'. This title comes from the first word of the entrance antiphon for Holy Mass this weekend. The customary liturgical color is 'rose' because it is the liturgical color that represents joy. If rose vestments are not available, violet could also be utilized as the liturgical color.
 Let us rejoice in our Lord today because Holy Week and the Easter celebration are rapidly approaching! Even though we 'rejoice' this weekend, let us continue to keep our eyes fixed closely upon our good Lord.
 This week I share with you a sermon by St. John Chrysostom, bishop, (b. 344 - d.407) on the rewards and importance of a daily discipline or habit of prayer.
 "Prayer and converse with God is a supreme good: it is a partnership and union with God. As the eyes of the body are enlightened when they see light, so our spirit, when it is intent on God, is illumined by his infinite light. I do not mean the prayer of outward observance but prayer from the heart, not confined to fixed times or periods but continuous throughout the day and night. Our spirit should be quick to reach out toward God, not only when it is engaged in meditation; at other times also, when it is carrying out its duties, caring for the needy, performing works of charity, giving generously in the service of others, our spirit should long for God and call him to mind, so that these works may be seasoned with the salt of God's love, and so make a palatable offering to the Lord of the universe. Throughout the whole of our lives we may enjoy the benefit that comes from prayer if we devote a great deal of time to it.
 Prayer is the light of the spirit, true knowledge of God, mediating between God and man. The spirit, raised up to heaven by prayer, clings to God with the utmost tenderness; like a child crying tearfully for its mother, it craves the milk that God provides. It seeks the satisfaction of its own desires, and receives gifts outweighing the whole world of nature.
 Prayer stands before God as an honored ambassador. It gives joy to the spirit, peace to the heart. I speak of prayer, not words. It is the longing for God, love too deep for words, a gift not given by man but by God's grace. The apostle Paul says: We do not know how we are to pray but the Spirit himself pleads for us with inexpressible longings. (Rom 8:26) riches that cannot be taken away, heavenly food that satisfies the spirit. One who tastes this food is set on fire with an eternal longing for the Lord: his spirit burns as in a fire of utmost intensity.
 When the Lord gives this kind of prayer to a man, he gives him

Practice prayer from the beginning. Paint your house with the colors of modesty and humility. Make it radiant with the light of justice. Decorate it with the finest gold leaf of good deeds. Adorn it with the walls and stones of faith and generosity. Crown it with the pinnacle of prayer. In this way you will make it a perfect dwelling place for the Lord. You will be able to receive him as in a splendid palace, and through his grace you will already possess him, his image enthroned in the temple of your spirit.
 Through the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, St. Joseph, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God bless us with the graces we each need to grow in holiness this Lenten Season!
 In Christ through Mary,
 Fr. Kasel

Frequent contact with Sacred Scripture helps us to grasp the manner and the actions that God uses when choosing, teaching, and making us sharers in His love." St. John Paul II, Message for the 38th World Day of Prayer for Vocations, September 14, 2000

"The man who wishes to understand himself thoroughly must with his unrest, uncertainty, and even his weakness and sinfulness, with his life and death, draw near to Christ." St. John Paul II, Encyclical: The Redeemer of Man, March 1, 1979

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

Dear Parishioners,

This past Thursday evening I watched the movie UNPLANNED (2019). It is an excellent movie and I recommend that everyone see it. It will be in the theatres only a very limited time. If you are able, it is worth your time. Here are details about the movie:

All Abby Johnson ever wanted to do was help women. As one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, she was involved in upwards of 22,000 abortions and counseled countless women about their reproductive choices. Her passion surrounding a woman's right to choose even led her to become a spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, fighting to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in. Until the day she saw something that changed everything, leading Abby Johnson to join her former enemies at 40 Days For Life, and become one of the most ardent pro-life speakers in America.

Here is the website for the movie: <https://www.unplannedfilm.com/>
The movie is showing in Rochester at the Marcus Wehrenberg Galaxy 14 (4340 Maine Ave SE, Rochester, MN) through the middle of this coming week. Visit this site for movie schedule <https://www.fandango.com/unplanned-2019-217235/movie-times>

Prayer to our Blessed Mother: My Queen, my Mother, I give myself entirely to you, and to show my devotion to you, I consecrate to you this day my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my entire self without reserve. As I am your own, my good Mother, guard me and defend me as your property and possession. Amen.

Kitui Water Bottle Project: Please continue filling your water bottles with change and return to the church when full or by the end of Lent to help those in the Kitui Diocese in Africa overcome their water shortage. If you are finished filling your bottle, you can return it to the church. Thank you!

Safe Environment Reminder: The Archdiocese of St. Paul/Minneapolis requires all volunteers who interact with minors or vulnerable adults to complete the Essential 3 (background check, Code of Conduct, and VIRTUS training) before beginning their service, and to renew every three years while serving. At least two Essential 3 qualified adults are required at parish activities involving children. For off-site parish events, permission slips are required for each child signed by the parent or legal guardian. Please contact the Safe Environment Coordinator of your parish for details on how to register for a VIRTUS class, complete the Essential 3, or do updates. Thank you for your cooperation to comply.
