From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

I wish all fathers a blessed Father's Day! Let us remember to thank God, our Father, for the gift of fatherhood in the human family and pray for our respective personal father and for all fathers.

This Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity. The dogma of the Holy Trinity is the central teaching of our Catholic Faith. It is from this doctrine that all the other teachings of our Faith have context and meaning. It is very important that we grow in our knowledge and understanding of the Holy Trinity to the extent that each of us is able, while accepting that the Holy Trinity is a mystery that we cannot fully know or understand. God is infinite and we are finite. God is perfect and we are not. God is being and we are not. We can know Him and be in a relationship with Him to the extent that He has revealed and we are made able by His help, but only He can know and understand Himself fully as He is.

Here is some of what our Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches on the Holy Trinity:

"Christians are baptized 'in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit'". (Mt 28:19) Before receiving the sacrament, they respond to a three-part question when asked to confess the Father, the Son and the Spirit: "I do." "The Faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity." (St. Caesarius of Arles)

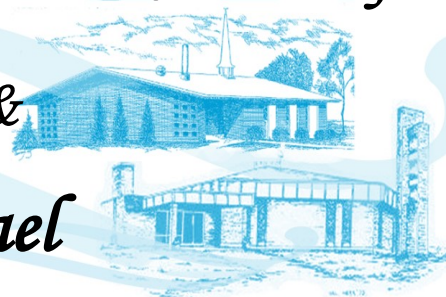

Christians are baptized in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit: not in their names, (Cf. Profession of faith of Pope Vigilius I) for there is only one God, the almighty Father, His only Son and the Holy Spirit: the Most Holy Trinity.

The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the "hierarchy of the Truths of Faith". (General Catechetical Directory 43) The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals Himself to men "and reconciles and unites with Himself those who turn away from sin". (General Catechetical Directory 47)

The Trinity is a mystery of Faith in the strict sense, one of the "mysteries that are hidden in God, which can never be known unless they are revealed by God". (Dei Filius 4) To be sure, God has left traces of his Trinitarian being in his work of creation and in his Revelation throughout the Old Testament. But his inmost Being as Holy Trinity is a mystery that is inaccessible to reason alone or even to Israel's faith before the Incarnation of God's Son and the sending of the Holy Spirit.

The Church uses (I) the term "substance" (rendered also at times by "essence" or "nature") to designate the divine being in its unity, (II) the term "person" or "hypostasis" to designate the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in the real distinction among them, and (III) the term "relation" to designate the fact that their distinction lies in the relationship of each to the others.

The Trinity is One. We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons, the "consubstantial Trinity". (Council of Constantinople II) The divine persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God whole and entire: "The Father is that which the Son is, the Son that which the Father is, the Father and the Son that which the Holy Spirit is, i.e. by nature one God." (Council of Toledo XI) In the words of the Fourth Lateran Council (1215), "Each of the persons is that supreme reality, viz., the divine substance, essence or nature." (Lateran Council IV) The Divine Persons are really distinct from one another. "God is one but not solitary." (Fides Damasi) "Father", "Son", "Holy Spirit" are not simply names designating modalities of the Divine Being, for they are really distinct from one another: "He is not the Father who is the Son, nor is the Son he who is the Father, nor is the Holy Spirit he who is the Father or the Son." (Council of Toledo XI) They are distinct from one another in their relations of origin: "It is the Father who generates, the Son who is begotten, and the Holy Spirit who proceeds." (Lateran Council IV) The divine Unity is Triune. The Divine Persons are relative to one another. Because it does not divide the Divine Unity, the real distinction of the persons from one another resides solely in the relationships which relate them to one another: "In the relational names of the Persons, the (cont. on pg. 4)

Prayer for Priests by St. Therese of Lisieux, Carmelite

O Jesus, eternal Priest, keep you priests within the shelter of Your Sacred Heart, where none may touch them. Keep unstained their anointed hands, which daily touch Your Sacred Body. Keep unsullied their lips, daily purpled with Your Precious Blood. Keep pure and unearthy their hearts, sealed with the sublime mark of the Priesthood. Let Your holy Love surround them and shield them from the world's contagion. Bless their labors with abundant fruit and may the souls to whom they minister be their joy and consolation here and in Heaven their beautiful and everlasting crown. Amen

Featured CD from our Lighthouse Media Display:

Could God Love Someone Like Me?— Fr. Mike Schmitz
Fr. Mike Schmitz, one of the leading presenters in the Church today, speaks powerfully about the Sacrament of Reconciliation. He makes clear the truth that Christ deeply loves and wants to encounter each of us as we are, with all our imperfections. Fr. Mike debunks the lies we often believe about not being good enough to approach Jesus, and he draws upon Scripture to explain rationally why we go to priests to encounter God's mercy and forgiveness in Confession.

Prayer of Pope John XXIII - for Fathers

Saint Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.

Kindly protect those who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labour and weariness. But amid the worries of material life, our soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother. Assure those you protect that they do not labour alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over Him faithfully as you have done. Amen

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from pg. 1) Father is related to the Son, the Son to the Father, and the Holy Spirit to both. While they are called three Persons in view of their relations, we believe in one nature or substance." (Council of Toledo XI) Indeed "everything (in them) is one where there is no opposition of relationship." (Council of Florence) "Because of that unity the Father is wholly in the Son and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Son is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit is wholly in the Father and wholly in the Son." (Council of Florence)" (CCC paragraphs 232-234, 237, 252-255) Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Joseph, and our patrons, St. Michael and St. Paul, may the blessings of the Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit come upon you, your families and our parishes!

Being Aware: what we need to know about the 'assisted dying' movement!

Are assisted dying laws leading society down a dangerous path? For the past three years, award winning filmmaker Kevin Dunn has travelled to four countries to capture powerful testimonials from those most affected by 'assisted dying' laws: the elderly and those who live with disabilities or mental illness. Kevin's talk, which includes scenes from his films, underscores the need for each of us to become a 'prophet of hope' in the lives of those around us. Kevin is currently travelling throughout the world on his "Prophets of Hope Tour", giving two different talks: "Living, Dying and the Power of Presence" and "The Vanier Way" (featuring Jean Vanier). Talks include clips from his recent films, "Fatal Flaws: Legalizing Assisted Death"; "The Euthanasia Deception" and "The Vanier Way". These, along with Kevin's powerful testimony as husband and father of six make for a truly uplifting and unforgettable experience. Are you ready to become a prophet of hope? Join us on June 18, 2019 at 7:00pm at the Church of St. Michael, 451 5th Street SW, Pine Island, MN 55963. The evening is free of charge; however a good will offering will be gratefully accepted.
