From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

First, all parishioners from our parishes are invited to take part in our Day in Honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary! We will have a procession after the 10:30am Holy Mass at the Church of St. Michael followed by ice cream and old-fashioned wieners. Anyone is welcome to attend this event in honor of our Blessed Mother!

This week we celebrate the Dogma and Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in Heaven (August 15). This Solemnity is a holy day of obligation, meaning that all Catholics are obligated to attend Holy Mass either at the vigil (night before) or on the day of the Solemnity. Please see the Holy Mass schedule for the Solemnity in this bulletin.

Here is what the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) teaches us about this great event that took place in the first century:

"Since the Virgin Mary's role in the mystery of Christ and the Spirit has been treated, it is fitting now to consider her place in the mystery of the Church. 'The Virgin Mary . . . is acknowledged and honored as being truly the Mother of God and of the redeemer. . . . She is 'clearly the mother of the members of Christ' . . . since she has by her charity joined in bringing about the birth of believers in the Church, who are members of its head.'" (Lumen Gentium 53) "Mary, Mother of Christ, Mother of the Church." (Paul VI, Discourse, November 21, 1964)

Mary's role in the Church is inseparable from her union with Christ and flows directly from it. "This union of the mother with the Son in the work of salvation is made manifest from the time of Christ's virginal conception up to his death"; (Lumen Gentium 57) it is made manifest above all at the hour of his Passion:

Thus the Blessed Virgin advanced in her pilgrimage of faith, and faithfully persevered in her union with her Son unto the cross. There she stood, in keeping with the divine plan, enduring with her only begotten Son the intensity of his suffering, joining herself with his sacrifice in her mother's heart, and lovingly consenting to the immolation of this victim, born of her: to be given, by the same Christ Jesus dying on the cross, as a mother to his disciple, with these words: "Woman, behold your son." (Lumen Gentium 58; see John 19:26-27)

After her Son's Ascension, Mary "aided the beginnings of the Church by her prayers." (Lumen Gentium 69) In her association with the apostles and several women, "we also see Mary by her prayers imploring the gift of the Spirit, who had already overshadowed her in the Annunciation." (Lumen Gentium 59)

"Finally the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death." (LG 59; see Pius XII, Munificentissimus Deus (1950); see Revelation 19:16) The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians:

In giving birth you kept your virginity; in your Dormition you did not leave the world, O Mother of God, but were joined to the source of Life. You conceived the living God and, by your prayers, will deliver our souls from death. (Byzantine Liturgy, Troparion, Feast of the Dormition, August 15th) By her complete adherence to the Father's will, to his Son's redemptive work, and to every prompting of the Holy Spirit, the Virgin Mary is the Church's model of faith and charity. Thus she is a "preeminent and . . . wholly unique member of the Church"; indeed, she is the "exemplary realization" (typus) (Lumen Gentium 53, 63) of the Church. Her role in relation to the Church and to all humanity goes still further. "In a wholly singular way she cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope, and burning charity in the Savior's work of restoring supernatural life to souls. For this reason she is a mother to us in the order of grace." (Lumen Gentium 61) "This motherhood of Mary in the order of grace continues uninterruptedly from the consent which she loyally gave at the Annunciation and which she sustained without (cont. on pg.4)

Welcome to the Churches of St. Paul & St. Michael

CHURCH OF SAINT MICHAEL NEWS

You are invited to the FALL FESTIVAL!

Saturday-Sunday, AUGUST 25-26, 2018
Church of St. Michael, Pine Island

Fall Festival is just around the corner!

Volunteers: Thank you to all that have stepped up and added their name to the volunteer listing. There are still some opportunities to help make this Fall Festival a success by volunteering.

Musicians: The sign-up sheet to entertain our guests was posted in the entryway last week. Encourage a talented musician from your family to entertain our guests on Sunday. All ages welcome.

We are still looking for picnic tables, tents, straw or hay bales, and a couple more large coolers. If you have any of these, we could use them on Saturday and Sunday. Please let Linda Kelly know if you can help us out.

Please return your raffle tickets. If you were successful in selling your packet and want more, please see Linda Kelly.

Baskets/Items for the Fall Festival Silent Auction:

Calling all parishioners! We are looking for silent auction baskets and items for our silent auction fundraiser. We are in need of baskets to be donated for the Silent Auction held during the Festival this Fall. Please make up any type of "basket" that you like or any individual items, including religious items, gift certificates, gift cards, homemade item or purchased items. Please drop off any items at the parish office. Thank you!

Calling all children ages 8 and up!

The Church of St. Michael will be starting a Children's Choir this fall, focusing on teaching our young ones sacred music from the vast treasury of our Catholic Church. Children ages 8 and up with treble voices are welcome. Practices will be twice monthly after the 10:30am Sunday Holy Mass and hospitality. Practice will last approximately one hour: 12:15 - 1:15pm, beginning September 9, continuing into November and then, January - March. Concerts will be the afternoons of Sunday, November 11th and Sunday, March 24th. The first practice will be Sunday, September 9th at 12:15pm.

Please email Carol Nelson at carol@peternelson.com or see me after Holy Mass to register your child and receive a full schedule. Each family will receive music and practice materials. Some practice will be needed at home. The St. Michael children's choir is completely free and offered to God to give glory to Him through beautiful music.

†ADORATION of the BLESSED SACRAMENT†

Can you spend an hour with Jesus? Adoration is held at St. Paul, Zumbrota on Tuesdays from 9am-5pm and St. Michael, Pine Island on Wednesdays from 9am-5pm.

Pine Island Food Shelf: The items requested for August are Jam & Jelly. Summer is here and many kids who eat school lunches the rest of the year are now home all day, and that can be an added burden for those families struggling with food insecurity. Please consider giving a little extra during the summer months to help out! Remember that the Food Shelf also gladly accepts garden produce!

WEEKLY TITHING for August 4-5, 2018

Envelopes:	$ 1,260.00
Plate:	$ 547.00
EFT:	$ 1,017.50
Total :	$ 2,824.50

Garden Produce Exchange! Please bring your extra garden produce to the Church of St. Michael. There will be a table outside the entrance of the Church where you can put the garden produce to share. Everyone is welcome to take home the garden produce. Thank you for your generosity.

Parish Pastoral Council at St Michael: Are you interested in assisting with a parish council for our parish? A parish council works with the pastor to foster growth in our Catholic Faith among our parishioners. The parish council is advisory in nature. Activities may include: developing parish activities that enhance parish life, assisting with educational opportunities for parishioners, outreach to the needy in our local community, evangelization efforts, collaborative activities with neighboring churches and more. If this interests you please contact Fr. Kasel or the parish office. May God bless our efforts!

Words To Live By

"Do not worry over things that generate preoccupation, derangement and anxiety. One thing only is necessary: to lift up your spirit and love God." St. Pio of Pietrelcina

"Remember: the sinner who is sorry for his sins is closer to God than the just man who boasts of his good works." St. Pio of Pietrelcina

"If we wish to welcome the Lord, we are called to conversion. This is the path put before us, the path that enables us to follow Christ in order to live as He did, sons and daughters in the Son." St. John Paul II, Homily at the Sports Palace in the Complex of the Olympic Center of Athens, May 5, 2001

"Only by recognizing the primacy of moral values can we use the immense possibilities offered by science and material progress to bring about the true advancement of the human person in truth, freedom and dignity." St. John Paul II, Address at Williams-Brice Stadium, Columbia, South Carolina, September 11, 1987

Consecration to our Blessed Mother

My Queen, my Mother! I give myself entirely to you, and to show my devotion to you I consecrate to you this day, my eyes, my ears, my mouth, my heart, my entire self without reserve. As I am your own, my good Mother, guard me and defend me as your property and possession. Amen.

CHURCH OF ST PAUL PRAYER CHAIN

Pro-Life Quote:

"For you deal here above all with human life, and human life is sacred; no one may dare make an attempt upon it. Respect for life, even with regard to the great problem of the birth rate, must find here in your Assembly its highest affirmation and its most rational defence. Your task is to ensure that there is enough bread on the tables of mankind, and not to encourage an artificial control of births, which would be irrational, in order to diminish the number of guests at the banquet of life."

~ Pope Paul VI to the UN General Assembly, October 4, 1965 ~

Teams of Our Lady

Dear Married Couples,

Are you interested in growing in our Catholic Faith in your marriage and family life? Would you be willing to do this in a monthly small group meeting with other couples? If so, I encourage you to consider being a part of a Teams of Our Lady group to be formed from among our parishioners. Please contact Fr. Kasel or the parish office if you have questions or would like to help form a group. God bless you!

NEWS FROM SAINT MICHAEL AND SAINT PAUL

(from pg. 1) wavering beneath the cross, until the eternal fulfillment of all the elect. Taken up to heaven she did not lay aside this saving office but by her manifold intercession continues to bring us the gifts of eternal salvation . . . Therefore the Blessed Virgin is invoked in the Church under the titles of Advocate, Helper, Benefactress, and Mediatrix (Lumen Gentium 62)

"Mary's function as mother of men in no way obscures or diminishes this unique mediation of Christ, but rather shows its power. But the Blessed Virgin's salutary influence on men . . . flows forth from the superabundance of the merits of Christ, rests on his mediation, depends entirely on it, and draws all its power from it." (Lumen Gentium 60)

"No creature could ever be counted along with the Incarnate Word and Redeemer; but just as the priesthood of Christ is shared in various ways both by his ministers and the faithful, and as the one goodness of God is radiated in different ways among his creatures, so also the unique mediation of the Redeemer does not exclude but rather gives rise to a manifold cooperation which is but a sharing in this one source." (Lumen Gentium 62)

"All generations will call me blessed": "The Church's devotion to the Blessed Virgin is intrinsic to Christian worship." (See Luke 1:48; Paul VI, Marialis cultus 56) The Church rightly honors "the Blessed Virgin with special devotion. From the most ancient times the Blessed Virgin has been honored with the title of 'Mother of God,' to whose protection the faithful fly in all their dangers and needs. . . . This very special devotion . . . differs essentially from the adoration which is given to the incarnate Word and equally to the Father and the Holy Spirit, and greatly fosters this adoration." (Lumen Gentium 66) The liturgical feasts dedicated to the Mother of God and Marian prayer, such as the rosary, an "epitome of the whole Gospel," express this devotion to the Virgin

Mary. (See Paul VI, Marialis cultus 42; Sacrosanctum concilium 103) After speaking of the Church, her origin, mission, and destiny, we can find no better way to conclude than by looking to Mary. In her we contemplate what the Church already is in her mystery on her own "pilgrimage of faith," and what she will be in the homeland at the end of her journey. There, "in the glory of the Most Holy and Undivided Trinity," "in the communion of all the saints," (Lumen Gentium 69) the Church is awaited by the one she venerates as Mother of her Lord and as her own mother. In the meantime the Mother of Jesus, in the glory which she possesses in body and soul in heaven, is the image and beginning of the Church as it is to be perfected in the world to come. Likewise she shines forth on earth until the day of the Lord shall come, a sign of certain hope and comfort to the pilgrim People of God. (Lumen Gentium 68; see 2 Peter 3 10)

By pronouncing her "fiat" at the Annunciation and giving her consent to the Incarnation, Mary was already collaborating with the whole work her Son was to accomplish. She is mother wherever he is Savior and head of the Mystical Body. The Most Blessed Virgin Mary, when the course of her earthly life was completed, was taken up body and soul into the glory of heaven, where she already shares in the glory of her Son's Resurrection, anticipating the resurrection of all members of his Body. "We believe that the Holy Mother of God, the new Eve, Mother of the Church, continues in heaven to exercise her maternal role on behalf of the members of Christ" (Paul VI, Solemn Profession of faith: Credo of the People of God 15)." (CCC 963-975)

Through the intercession of Our Mother, Assumed into Heaven Body and Soul, St. Joseph, and our patrons, St. Michael and St. Paul, may God bless you, your families and our parishes!

In Christ through Mary, Fr. Kasel
