From Father Kasel

Praised be Jesus Christ through Mary!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This week we begin offering more opportunities for the Sacrament of Confession. I urge all our parishioners to receive this Sacrament of Mercy before our Easter celebration! Recently, Pope Francis said that Confession "is going to praise God, because I -- the sinner -- have been saved by him," who always waits and always forgives "with tenderness." Make plans today to praise our good Lord in this beautiful Sacrament before Easter!

This Sunday the Church of St. Paul in Zumbrota hosts their annual St. Patrick's Ham Dinner at the Zumbrota VFW. All the food is great, especially the homemade desserts! There will also be a silent auction. I encourage you come to the St. Patrick's Ham Dinner and enjoy a great meal!

This week I offer an inspiring sermon from Pope St. Leo the Great (b.c.400-d.461). He reigned as pope from 440-461. He was an eloquent preacher and great writer. Many of his sermons are part of the prayers of the Church in the Breviary. He is best remembered for his courage in the face of notorious barbarian invader, Attila the Hun. In the year 452, St. Leo convinced Attila to stop his planned invasion of Rome and to leave Italy. Theologically, he is best known for writing what is known as the 'Tome of Leo'. St. Leo wrote this document to form the conversation at the Council of Chalcedon. The topic of the Tome concerned the union of two natures of Jesus Christ, which we call the hypostatic union. St. Leo's Tome was the decisive factor in this Council and his writing on this matter led the way to deeper understanding of the union of the natures of Christ. One can rightly say, it still impacts us today! I encourage you to look it up online. Here is a sermon St. Leo gave during Lent during his life many centuries ago and it still speaks to us today:

"In the gospel of John the Lord says: In this will all men know that you are my disciples, if you have love for each other. In a letter of the same apostle we read: Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God; he who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

The faithful should therefore enter into themselves and make a true judgment on their attitudes of mind and heart. If they find some store of love's fruit in their hearts, they must not doubt God's presence within them. If they would increase their capacity to receive so great a guest, they should practice greater generosity in doing good, with persevering charity.

If God is love, charity should know no limit, for God cannot be confined.

Any time is the right time for works of charity, but these days of Lent provide a special encouragement. Those who want to be present at the Lord's Passover in holiness of mind and body should seek above all to win this grace, for charity contains all other virtues and covers a multitude of sins.

Welcome to the Churches of

As we prepare to celebrate that greatest of all mysteries, by which the blood of Jesus Christ did away with our sins, let us first of all make ready the sacrificial offerings of works of mercy. In this way we shall give to those who have sinned against us what God in his goodness has already given us.

Let us now extend to the poor and those afflicted in different ways a more open-handed generosity, so that God may be thanked through many voices and the relief of the needy supported by our fasting.

No act of devotion on the part of the faithful gives God more pleasure than that which is lavished on his poor. Where he finds charity with its loving concern, there he recognizes the reflection of his own fatherly care.

In these acts of giving do not fear a lack of means. A generous spirit is itself great wealth. There can be no shortage of material for generosity where it is Christ who feeds and Christ who is fed. In all this activity there is present the hand of him who multiplies the bread by breaking it, and increasing it by giving it away.

The giver of alms should be free from anxiety and full of joy. His gain will be greatest when he keeps back least for himself. The holy apostle Paul tells us: He who provides seed for the sower will also provide bread for eating; he will provide you with more seed, and will increase the harvest of your goodness, in (continued on page 4)

The March Campaign is an easy way to participate in the efforts of the Minnesota FoodShare. This is timely during Lent, as the campaign provides an opportunity for Catholics to perform the first of the corporal works of mercy—feeding the hungry. It also coincides with Pope Francis' global appeal to end hunger, and is an opportunity to be in solidarity with him for this important campaign. All donations collected in March are especially appreciated as our local food shelf receives additional funds through the campaign based on total amounts collected in March.

March 20 is designated as Pack the Pews Sunday. Donations will be collected in the vestibule of the Church on March 20.

Pro Life Quote

"Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person – among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life." Catechism of the Catholic Church 2270

Lenten 40 Days for Life: Our local Catholic community is participating in 40 Days for Life – a community-based campaign that takes a determined, peaceful approach to showing local communities the consequences of abortion in their own neighborhoods and for their own friends and families. You are invited to peacefully pray during the 40-day vigil on the sidewalk in front of Planned Parenthood (located in the Northgate Shopping Center) and also to help spread the word about this important community outreach. For more information, visit the campaign website: <https://40daysforlife.com/local-campaigns/rochester-2/>. If you are not able to join us on the sidewalk, we invite you to still pray with us for an end of abortion.

During this 40 Days for Life campaign, we have reports of 265 children spared from abortion – that we know of!

Most loving Jesus, meek Lamb of God, I, a miserable sinner, salute and worship the most Sacred Wound of Thy Shoulder on which Thou didst bear Thy heavy Cross which so tore Thy flesh and laid bare Thy Bones as to inflict on Thee an anguish greater than any other wound of Thy Most Blessed Body. I adore Thee, O Jesus most sorrowful; I praise and glorify Thee, and give Thee thanks for this most sacred and painful Wound, beseeching Thee by that exceeding pain, and by the crushing burden of Thy heavy Cross to be merciful to me, a sinner, to forgive me all my mortal and venial sins, and to lead me on towards Heaven along the Way of Thy Cross. Amen. (Imprimatur: +Thomas D. Beven, Bishop of Springfield.)
